
How will materials be selected?

You will determine our level of involvement, which can range from filling specific title requests to regular staff selections based on your interest profile. Feel free to call us at any time with suggestions by title, author, subject or genre.

How many items can I request?

There is no limit. You may check out as many items as you expect to need for a four week period.

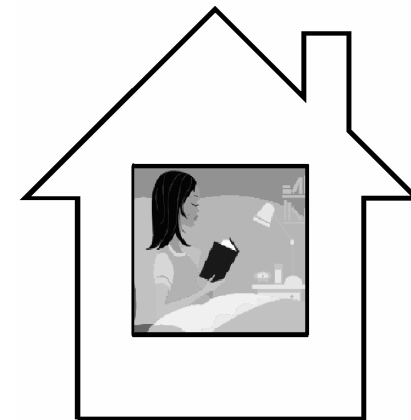

How do I volunteer?

If you would like to volunteer in our Homebound program, please ask for Volunteer Services at 475-8732.

Chelsea

District Library

is pleased to announce its expanded Homebound Delivery Service

Who is eligible?

You are eligible if you are a library district resident who is unable to visit the library due to permanent or temporary disability or illness. Upon entering the program, you will be issued a new Homebound library ID.

Is there a fee?

Our service is free to eligible patrons. Also, there are no overdue fines, though you may be held responsible for lost or damaged items.

What materials can I borrow?

- ◆ Books, excluding New books, including large print and paperback
- ◆ Audiobooks on CD, cassette tape, or Playaway
- ◆ Magazines
- ◆ Nonfeature DVDs
- ◆ Music CDs

How do I sign up?

Call us at 734-475-8732 and ask for an Adult Services librarian. We will help you complete a Homebound Patron Registration Form that asks about the particular materials you would like delivered. You can also print this form at home from our website and return it to us by mail. After registration, we will set up a schedule for your home delivery.

Who will deliver the materials?

Materials will be delivered by trained volunteers or by library staff.

How often will materials be delivered?

You will determine the frequency of delivery from one-time-only to monthly. All materials will be checked out to you for a four week period.

Can I renew materials?

You may renew materials once, for an additional four week period. However, renewals cannot be placed if there are holds on an item.
